LIFER AT 15 — Richard Harter, 15-year-old Garfield Heights, O. boy, is entering the Ohio penitentiary to begin a life sentence for the murder of a 62-year-old railroad worker, Edward Craven, because he wouldn't give him a ride after he had run away from home. He is the youngest boy to be sent to the prison in the memory of warden Ralph Alvis.

Senate Handed State Budget Of 1.8 Billion

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Now it's all up to the Ohio Senate—the state's two-year budget of more than $1,800,000,000 and about 240 millions in new taxes to help pay the bills.

The Democratic-controlled Ohio House passed the budget bill Tuesday, 85-50, after beating off five Republican attempts to amend or stall it.

Between a 90-minute caucus and a long floor debate, it took nearly four hours to get the big money bill through the House and send it to the Senate.

Senate action will hinge on the fate of a handful of tax measures sponsored by Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle. If the tax bills stall, so will the budget bill. DiSalle insists he will not consider a budget bill until he is sure the state has good prospects of enough money to meet the obligations the budget will impose.

Among the pending tax measures are bills to increase the corporation franchise tax 96 millions in the next two years, the cigarette tax another 46 millions and the sales tax another 34 millions.

While Democrats contend their budget total is 13 millions lower than that appropriated by a Republican Legislature two years ago, Minority Leader Roger Cloud (R-Logan) disputed the claim:

"The appropriation bill calls for expenditures which will be 200 million dollars more than the expenditures of the last two years."

The difference between the two viewpoints appeared to lie in the fact both former GOP Gov. C. William O'Neill and DiSalle trimmed spending far below appropriations to make recession-shrunk revenues cover only necessary spending.

House Finance Committee Chairman G. D. Tabb (D-Mahoning) told the House: "We have good reason to believe that if the governor's tax program is enacted into law, this budget will be in balance."

The House defeated amendments to increase the poor relief appropriation by nearly 12 millions, cut personal services by 8 per cent, cut the amount allowed for running the Legislature and restrict the highway director's power to transfer funds. Finally, it defeated 72-62 an attempt to send the budget bill back to committee.

Rep. R. Martin Galvin (D-Lucas) called former Gov. O'Neill's no-new-tax program "a (Continued on Page 12)

House OKs Limit On Farm Supports

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House today voted a $50,000 limit on government price support loans on farm commodities. In the past, some loans to big operators have ranged over a million dollars.

A roll-call vote of 261-165 put the $50,000 limitation in a bill appropriating $3,939,165,498 to finance the Agriculture Department for the fiscal year starting July 1. The bill was then sent to the Senate by voice vote.

Circleville Kindergarten Registration Set For Tuesday

Final plans for Circleville kindergarten registration Tuesday for those children who will enter kindergarten in September, were announced today by George Hartman, Superintendent of City Schools.

Registration centers will be Walnut Street School for all pupils who live on Mill St. and south. The Franklin Street School for all pupils who live north of Mill St., including High St., the Bloomdale addition, and Fairview Ave., plus all territory adjacent to the Fairgrounds.

The Atwater School for all pupils living north of High St. and Bloomdale. The kindergarten pupils from Knollwood Village will register at the Franklin Street School. The kindergarten pupils from Wayne Twp. will register at the Walnut School.

Pupils whose last names begin with the letter A through M should report for registration from 9 to 11:30 a. m. Those whose last names begin with the letter N through Z should report for registration from 1 to 3:30 p. m.

EVERY OTHER PUPIL, according to the superintendent, will be assigned to an afternoon session. A parent desiring a change of assignment may trade with another parent.

There are two requirements for registration. The pupil must be 5 years old before September 1 and a birth certificate must be presented to complete the registration.

The superintendent stressed the point that Circleville has no special neighborhood kindergartens. If enrollment is too heavy at one school, pupils must be assigned where there is room.

Kindergartens in Circleville operate on a uniform course of study.

A child should attend kindergarten to make social adjustment, cooperative group adjustment, and to improve his ability to follow directions so he is ready for the first grade, Hartman continued.

Khrush Says Russia Never To Fire 1st Missile at U. S.

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev told a group of Florida business and professional men Tuesday that the Soviet Union never will launch the first rocket against the United States.

But he said their grandchildren had better look out—the bug of communism will get them.

Khrushchev, evidently in a good humor, told them he was happy to see 45 Florida businessmen and after a 70-minute interview took them into the Kremlin garden for photographs.

Notes on the conversation were given by Ralph A. Renick, vice president of TV station WTVJ of Miami, president of the Radio-TV News Directors Assn.; and Thomas F. Fleming, president of the First Bank of Boca Raton, Fla.

"I can assure you that we will not be the first to use our weapons against you," Khrushchev said.

Later in the talks he said: "Who can guarantee that your grandchildren years from now will have the same views that you do? We won't start a war. We will not strike first and you will not allow any crazy people to start a war. Therefore there will be no war but you are as afraid of communism as of the devil himself."

"The bacilli of communism may enter the brains of your grandchildren. Therefore take care of the brains of your grandchildren."

Khrushchev predicted the Geneva Big Four foreign ministers conference will be successful "or we would not have participated in the first place."

He declared the U.S.S.R. is willing to go a long way to get results. He repeated what he said

Ohio's Weekend Toll To Be 22 Dead

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Twenty-two persons will die in Ohio's Memorial Day weekend traffic despite added safety measures, officials here predict.

At a meeting Tuesday, officials from law enforcement agencies, the military, the governor's traffic safety committee and other safety groups discussed possible means to reduce the highway slaughter.

The group endorsed a plan proposed by the Highway Safety Department. Director J. Grant Keys said the program includes extra patrolmen, a get-tough policy for violators, imposition of "realistic" penalties for the violations, radio and newspaper safety reminders and vehicle safety checks.

earlier that he dislikes the package plan proposed by the Western powers.

"The Western powers have proposed a draft which calls for a united Berlin to be set up," he said. "In other words they proposed that the government of East Germany should give up its own capital, that of East Berlin."

"Is that government supposed to transfer its capital somewhere else? Is it supposed to transfer it to Mars or Jupiter? No reasonable person can hope for a solution on that basis."

Child Injured When Bike Is Struck by Car

Teresa Ann Pierce, 7, Route 1, Circleville, suffered back, right arm and left knee injuries when the bicycle she was riding was struck by a car on the Circleville-Tarleton and Morris Church-Salem Roads four miles east of here at 5:25 p. m. yesterday.

The child was rushed to Berger Hospital. She was listed in "satisfactory" condition today. The car involved was driven by C. George Huskey, 33, Route 1, Laurelville. He was not injured in the crash.

According to Deputy Sheriff Dwight Radcliff, an eye witness said the youngster came out of the north section of the Morris Church-Salem Road and cut diagonally across the Circleville-Tarleton Road. The deputy said she apparently was in the middle of the highway when struck.

HUSKEY, headed east on the Circleville-Tarleton Road, said he came over a rise in the road and suddenly saw the girl. He told Deputy Radcliff that he applied his brakes, but skidded into the bicycle.

Vernon Pierce, 9, a brother, said he was riding his bicycle ahead of his sister. He told Radcliff that he shouted to his sister to wait at the intersection.

Deputy Radcliff is continuing the investigation today.

Hoffa Denies Any Threat To Call Nationwide Strike

Plane Plant Blast Kills 5 Workmen

BALTIMORE (AP) — An explosion racked the hull of a seaplane being cleaned with a commercial solvent in a Martin Co. hangar today, killing five workmen and injuring at least five others.

A Martin spokesman said a dozen or so men were bathing the hull of a two-engine seaplane with a cleaning fluid using pressure hoses when a muffled explosion rocked the interior of the hull.

The big hangar, located away from the main cluster of Martin buildings, quickly filled with smoke, but there was little fire after the first flash.

An inquiry was begun quickly by Dr. Melvin Davis, Maryland deputy medical examiner.

The company said the cause of the blast had not been determined.

The hangar where the explosion occurred is used to clean and paint the seaplanes manufactured here before they are delivered. The hangar is separated from the rest of the plant by the airfield used by Martin's and an Air National Guard detachment.

The company said the dead were:

John Savage, 33, Charles Buchanan, 43, James Washington, 27, George King, 36, and Frank Krawczyk, 25, all of Baltimore. Washington and Krawczyk were employed as helpers and the other three as finish sprayers.

Three of the injured taken to University Hospital were identified as John Dunn, 27, with second-degree burns; James Holly, 36, leg injuries, and Jacob Goldstein, 42, whose injuries were described as slight.

The hospital understood Holly was blown out of the hull by the impact of the blast.

Secret Talks Idea Chilled

Germany, France Slow On U.S.-British Idea

GENEVA (AP)—West Germany and France were reported today to be putting the brakes on U.S.-British enthusiasm for a prompt opening of secret talks with the Soviet Union over the Berlin crisis and prospects for a summit conference.

Some cautious moves were apparently going on in the Big Four foreign ministers conference concerning the start of secret negotiations.

When these do take place they will almost certainly determine whether a summit conference will be held this summer.

Maure Couve de Murville of France and Heinrich von Brentano of West Germany appeared less anxious to get quickly into secret talks than their two Western colleagues.

They were said to be taking the line with U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and Britain's Foreign Minister Selwyn Lloyd that, since the Soviet Union created the Berlin crisis, the Soviets should take the lead in finding a solution.

Couve de Murville and Von Brentano were not opposed to secret talks, diplomats said, but insist the Western allies must enter into such discussions with the greatest care.

Debate over the rival and mutually rejected Soviet and Western proposals for a German peace settlement will continue possibly until the end of the week.

This means a delay in the schedule which Herter tentatively anticipated last week—that private talks with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko might get under way by today or Thursday.

Smith Slated For Honors At Bar Meet

The Pickaway County Bar Assn. will be well represented at the 79th annual Ohio State Bar Assn. Convention slated for Thursday through Saturday in Cincinnati.

An added feature for the local bar will be the first place award presentation to Herald Reporter J. I. Smith III.

Smith will receive recognition as the first place winner in the State Bar Assn. sponsored journalism contest for individuals.

Award presentations will be made by Ohio Supreme Court Chief Justice Carl V. Weyandt at the banquet on Friday night.

PLANNING TO attend from here are County Common Pleas Judge William Ammer, County Probate and Juvenile Judge Guy G. Cline.

Fourth District Court of Appeals Judge William D. Radcliff, Smith and his wife, Rosemary, Robert H. Huffer, Tom A. Renick, Harry Margulis, Ashville, and Donald Patterson, Adelphi.

Reds Claim Record

Teamster Chief Says Report Is 'Distorted'

Top Senate Rackets Prober Calls for Congressional Action

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Teamsters Union President James F. Hoffa today denied he threatened a nationwide strike in reprisal for proposed restrictive labor laws.

He told the Houston Chronicle late Tuesday that accounts of his speech in Brownsville, Tex., were "distortions of the truth." He said there is "no threat of a nationwide Teamsters' strike whatever."

The Associated Press reporter at the Brownsville meeting, Whitey Sawyer, said however he quoted Hoffa correctly. Sawyer said he talked to Hoffa after the Brownsville meeting and the union president then repeated the threat.

Daily newspapers in the lower Rio Grande Valley, working independently, carried virtually the same wording.

In Washington this morning, Sen. John McClellan (D-Ark) urged Congress to meet head-on any threat by Hoffa to call a nationwide strike.

McClellan, chairman of the Senate rackets probers, said he will introduce soon a bill he has talked about to apply the antitrust laws to transportation unions. He gave no further details.

Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union, told a Brownsville, Tex., audience Tuesday that organized labor's answer to such legislation should be to have all its collective bargaining contracts expire on the same date, and then strike.

"We can call a primary strike all across the nation that will straighten out the employers once and for all," Hoffa said.

Hoffa has been working to organize a conference of various transportation unions, including his Teamsters, and longshoremen and rail unions. He spoke at a district convention of the International Longshoremen's Assn. but indicated he was suggesting a strike by all labor unions.

The suggestion was quickly rejected by AFL-CIO President George Meany, who served notice Hoffa could not count on support from the federation's 124 million members. The AFL-CIO has expelled the Teamsters on charges of corruption.

In his address to the Gulf Coast Longshoremen, Hoffa said there is a movement afoot for an antitrust law against labor unions.

He said such a law would require "the longshoremen to take in part of the teamsters, the teamsters to take in some of the steelworkers, and the steelworkers to take in some of the auto workers."

"Such a situation would create conflict of wages and working conditions," he said.

"The only answer is that if such a law passes, we should have all our contracts end on a given date. 'They talk about a secondary boycott; we can call a primary strike all across the nation that will straighten out the employers for once and for all.'"

Hoffa was greeted by a tremendous round of applause following the statement.

He attacked the press, Congress and the AFL-CIO, which has expelled his huge union.

He said the press asked "loaded questions."

"They ask me if we are going to take over the I.L.A.," Hoffa said. "If you say yes, that makes you a dictator. If you say no, that makes you a companion of mobsters and hoodlums."

He said congressional investigations are conducted mostly "by individuals who want publicity."

The Teamster chief said the AFL-CIO and the Teamsters had worked together for the working man. He said that all unions had in the past called on the Teamsters for help.

"When they were in trouble, they wanted us," he said. "When things were calm and peaceful they didn't want us."

Ohio Gasoline Tax Going Up 2 Cents

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Many Ohio motorists will begin to pay another two-cents-a-gallon gasoline tax Thursday — and next March they may pay an extra $5 for their license tags.

The gasoline tax increase will become effective at 12:01 a.m., EST, Thursday after Gov. Michael V. DiSalle signs the act.

Gasoline in storage at retail filling stations at the time the tax boost becomes effective is not subject to the tax, but many stations are expected to start collecting the higher tax immediately.

The state tax jumps from five to seven cents a gallon. The federal tax is three cents a gallon. The new total tax a gallon therefore becomes 10 cents.

The increased tax, which includes a two-cent increase in the tariff on diesel fuel, is expected to produce an extra 115 million dollars in the next two years for new highway construction. Together with federal matching funds—running from 50 to 90 per cent—the new tax is designed to help finance a 300-million-dollar-a-year pay-as-you-go roadbuilding program.

The lawmakers withstood all attempts to get part of the gasoline tax increase for street and road work at the city, county and township level. But promises were made that the local subdivisions would be taken care of in another way.

The $5 license tax increase—estimated to yield about 20 million dollars a year—apparently is planned to carry out that promise.

The House Highways Committee Tuesday night recommended House passage of a bill for an across-the-board increase in auto license fees from $10 to $15 a year. The committee vote was 11-8 along party lines.

The combined taxes mean that the motorist who drives 10,000 miles a year and averages 15 miles a gallon would pay an extra $18.32 in state taxes a year—$15.32 for gasoline and $5 more for his license plates.

The local high school will graduate 102 seniors during its 101st commencement scheduled for 8 p. m. Friday. The proceedings will be held in the high school gymnasium.

The Rev. Powers will speak on "A Great Time to Be Alive." Miss Barbara Sieverts will deliver the valedictorian address entitled "Long May Our Land Be Bright."

Pamela Teal will give the salutatorian's address, entitled "Sweet Land of Liberty." The Rev. Paul I. Wachs, of the Methodist Church, will give the Invocation and Benediction.

No Housing Shortage Here

NEW YORK (AP)—The Bronx Zoo's robin, who started to build nine nests, has quit her construction work to take on the duties of a mother.

Tuesday she hatched two of the three eggs she laid in one of the nine nests four of which are complete and ready for occupancy.

If she hatches the third egg, there will be a nest for each member of the family—except the father, who hasn't been around.

Stevens' Petition Alleged That the Line Was Constructed So That It Was Dangerous to Children; That the Gas Company Maintained and Allowed the Line to Exist in Such a Condition as to Cause It to Be Inherently Dangerous to Children

The pipe line is used for the transmission of natural gas. Stevens maintained that while playing on this pipe line, his son fell into the creek and was drowned.

STEVENS' PETITION alleged that the line was constructed so that it was dangerous to children; that the gas company maintained and allowed the line to exist in such a condition as to cause it to be inherently dangerous to children.

The company knew that children were accustomed to playing on the line over the creek; the utility knowingly could foresee children playing and falling from the pipe and drowning.

The company could have reasonably provided a safeguard to obviate danger without interfering with purpose of the pipe line.

Stevens petition stated that as a direct and proximate result of the company's negligence, his child was caused to suffer extreme shock, terror, pain and was drowned. It asked for a $75,000 judgment.

An additional $200,000 was asked for the wrongful death of the child. Stevens is represented by the law firm of Volkema, Aalysan and Wal-ske, Columbus.

Spreng Trail Slated For Extended Delay

CINCINNATI (AP) — The bank robbery trial of Frank Lawrence Spreng starts today in U. S. District Court, but is assured of a postponement.

Judge John H. Druffel is presiding at another trial. He took no action in the Spreng case Tuesday.

But he has already granted a defense motion for a psychiatric exam for Spreng. The report on the mental tests has not yet been given.

Spreng, 29, of Akron, was indicted on charges he staged a $25,955 bank robbery March 2 in Hamilton and fled in a stolen airplane.

Twenty Costly Years

Twenty years is an insignificant period of time as logged in history books. To dwell upon any two-decade period for an appreciable length of time would prevent the non-specializing student from completely reviewing the record man has made for himself since his beginning.

For this reason dramatic evolutions of social and economic concepts occurring in a 20-year period of history are often summarily recorded in a few brief paragraphs.

No history book can record the preceding two decades in such abbreviated form, for they have certainly been extraordinary years, but many of the influences of the age will nevertheless be lost when the historians' pens transcribe the events of the last 20 years for posterity.

Three outstanding occurrences in the 20 years ended in 1958 are destined — simply because of their unprecedented scope — to become focal points of attention for historians:

World War II, which was the largest, most destructive and most expensive conflict ever engaged in by human beings.

The harnessing of the atom and the opening of the space age. Overnight advances of both nuclear and space exploration programs find the two-decade period closing with doubts man is capable of controlling the scientific achievements he has made.

110th Anniversary Musings

NEW YORK (AP) — The news from Moscow the other day got me thinking. It concerned a Russian couple celebrating their 110th wedding anniversary.

She's 136 and he's 131. They have great-great-grandchildren. They have two daughters and a son, each of whom is over 100.

And I got to thinking about a couple married that long and imagined they were American.

And one morning at breakfast: He: Pass the toast. She: Know what day this is? He: Lemme see, it's May 20, 18 — no, 1959.

She: It's our 110th wedding anniversary.

He: Who told you that, Univac? She: Still thoughtless, aren't you? Mother was right. I never should have married a younger man. You're just immature. And so forgetful. You even forgot Junior's last birthday. And you know

Wages: What Are They?

A correspondent begins a letter on the subject of wages with the following diatribe:

"It's rather disturbing to be reading a fine column by one of your favorites to all at once to come to a statement so glaringly false. How do I know? Well over 40 years in the restaurant business taught me that's how! You state without reservation that this type of personnel (sic) is underpaid (dishwasher) & etc. . . ."

I need not continue the correspondent's argument, because the same argument in other language appears on the signs of pickets, marching in front of a hospital in New York. The pickets say that they get $38 a week and that it is not enough. Of course, the $38 is take-home pay which is not a wage.

The brutal fact, however, of the withholding tax is that to the worker all that matters is the take-home pay. That is what he gets. That is all that he gets.

The federal withholding tax, the state withholding tax (where they collect it that way), social security, union check-off, and whatever else is taken out of the wage envelope are not regarded as wages. These items are not assumed, by the worker, to be his personal contribution to society because they are never his. These are regarded as bookkeeping devices. What the worker gets is what he actually gets. It is the take-home pay.

This is a trick upon the people of this country. The inventors of this device have done the United States mischief because

A complete disregard by political leaders at all levels of government for the prudent conservation of national wealth heretofore jealously guarded by elected custodians of local, state and national affairs.

Of the three, undoubtedly the last will provoke the most critical comment from historical surveyors. They will note that while it took the U. S. 162 years to reach total annual federal, state and local expenditures of $16.4 billion by 1933, it took only 20 more years to increase this to $131 billion, according to data compiled by the Tax Foundation Inc.

They will not that this 20-year spending spree plunged the nation into a debt that can never be erased, short of an economic upheaval. Beginning with a total governmental acquired debt of $56.6 billion in 1936, politicians seeking to satisfy all coming to them with hands outstretched have increased the deficit to $333 billion in just 20 years.

Courtin' Main

The only one that accomplishes anything by laying around is a hen.

How important 101th birthdays are to the children.

He: Pass the Jelly.

She: Full of big talk and promises. I remember you promised after the war that—

He: Which war?

She: Promised we'd take a long trip some time.

He: What's the rush? Things are too crowded these days.

She: You said that about the stage coach and clipper ships.

He: I swear, This is the toughest bacon I've had since Shiloh.

She: I'm not surprised. You haven't raised my table money since Appomattox.

He: Can't a man enjoy his breakfast in peace, just once in a century?

She: We wouldn't be worrying about money now if you had had any sense about those investments. Imagine, 10 shares of Amalgamated Lamp Wick!

He: How was I to know one week later that darn young fool would invent the light bulb?

She: You couldn't even win an election bet.

He: I didn't do so bad on Fillmore, Pierce and Lincoln.

She: When will we get a television set? Matter of fact, when will we get a radio?

He: You haven't seen all your stereotypical slides yet. Look, if you're so darned bored, if you have so much free time to kill, why don't you get yourself a hobby? Maybe skiing. Or maybe you ought to get a part-time job, say delivering ice.

She: If I did, I'd be the first one in this family to make a decent living!

He: Now, listen, woman, if I were you I'd keep a civil tongue in my head. After all, there isn't anything necessarily permanent about our arrangement.

Stroke Victim Family Tips

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Recovery from a stroke is the rule, not the exception.

Winston Churchill and the famed scientist, Louis Pasteur, are prime examples. Pasteur did some of his best work during the 27 years after he had suffered a severe stroke.

Very often, however, this recovery is a long process and it usually places quite a burden on the rest of the family.

Rather than give advice for stroke victims to follow, today I would like to pass on a few tips to their families.

Any person who has suffered a stroke, no matter how severe, must have the will to recover and the desire to be independent, or improvement will be extremely slow.

It is up to you, his family, to encourage him, to show confidence in his improvement and to let him do things himself as much as possible.

Be prepared for some changes in his personality. Maybe he will be more irritable, more easily frustrated. He might not be able to keep his attention focused on any one thing for very long.

Perhaps he will laugh or cry without any apparent reason. It might seem that he doesn't particularly care about regaining his speech, if he has lost it.

Speech training, incidentally, should be begun as soon as possible.

Be careful not to frustrate the patient with tasks that are too difficult. Don't expect too much from him.

It may take him a long time to shave, brush his teeth or even comb his hair. But if he can do it, let him, no matter how long it takes.

Be sure to praise him for each successful effort. And don't you become discouraged if he fails frequently. He'll make it eventually, with your help.

It is a great boost to his morale if he feels useful. So don't put him on the sidelines and expect him to occupy himself with radio or television.

Make him a part of the family activities, help him keep in contact with the world as he knew it before his attack. Help him pursue old hobbies or develop new ones.

In short, help the patient help himself.

Mrs. R.: I am a shut-in because of a fear that something dreadful will happen to me if I leave the house. I have high blood pressure and a heart condition.

Can you suggest something to help me overcome this fear?

Answer: See your physician who can recommend a psychiatrist so that the cause of your fear can be determined.

Juvenile Offenders Given Mental Exams

NEVADA, Mo. (AP) — Circuit Judge Jack Pritchard is taking a new tack with juvenile offenders. He requires most of them to submit to mental and physical examination at State Hospital No. 3.

This has given certain pause to the set whose byword is — "crazy man, crazy!"

"There isn't any doubt it's changed a lot of attitudes," said Darrell Estes Jr., chief of police in this southwest Missouri city and juvenile officer for Missouri's 26th Judicial Circuit.

"But, as vice president, couldn't you have refused to take the aptitude test?"

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

MRS. LEONORE VAIL, of Michigan City, Ind., found this letter, dated December 6, 1873, in a collection in her attic: "Madam: After long consideration and meditation on the great reputation you bear in the nation, I have conceived an over-powering inclination to become your relation. Granted your approbation I shall make preparation to profess my admiration with less conversation and more osculation, giving me aggrandization beyond my wildest calculation. Yours, J. W."

What delighted Mrs. Vail most was the note written on the envelope by the recipient: "I tioned him!"

When Max Shulman, author of "Rally Round the Flag, Boys," was in Hollywood, a reporter asked him if he had any advice to offer to young, would-be novelists.

"I certainly have," snapped Shulman. "Marry money!"

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Christian A. Herter's job as secretary of state is a position of high honor but it may become for him, before he's through, a lonely and colorless post.

There are several reasons for thinking so, now that the terminal illness of his predecessor, John Foster Dulles, fastens attention upon the task Herter has inherited:

1. He has very little time to develop new ideas. His job ends 20 months from now—when the Eisenhower administration goes out of office—unless the Republicans win in 1960 and want to retain him.
2. No one is really expecting from him any change in American foreign policy as it was laid down and pursued by Dulles, with President Eisenhower's blessing. It is now long-established and more or less accepted by American public opinion.
3. The shadow of Dulles will lie across every move Herter makes. It will be a yardstick for comparison between the two men. It cannot help but make Herter self-conscious about his own performance, since Dulles was such a dominant figure.
4. He gives no sign of having any of Dulles' flamboyance—for instance, Dulles' startling phrasing-making which agitated both friends and foes—and apparently has very little of Dulles' ego or forcefulness.

As an example:

At the foreign ministers meeting, now being held in Geneva, Herter's performance has been correct but because he is a quiet kind of man he has by no means dominated the conference as Dulles would have done, inside and out.

His statements at Geneva — where so far the meeting has been simply a propaganda contest between the West and the Soviets — already have been criticized as too prosaic and legalistic and lacking in public appeal and understanding.

The Dulles-Eisenhower foreign policy has several basic elements:

Yield nothing to Soviet protestations of goodwill unless accompanied by performance; preserve

By James Marlow

America's system of military alliances to keep the Soviets and Chinese Communists standing still; discount agreements with Moscow unless there is enforcement, that is, a check system to prevent cheating.

This policy has become so much of American thinking that Herter, even if he wanted to, could not deviate from it without subjecting himself to critical examination by Congress and the public.

And he shows no signs of deviating. As of now it would seem to be his task to follow that policy down the line until his term of office ends. Thus his job has the appearance of a holding operation.

That by its very nature calls for steady plodding, not a personality display.

The one change he probably will make is in running the State Department. Dulles conducted pretty much a one-man operation, doing most of his own thinking and handling most of the important diplomacy.

Herter is expected to rely more on the men around him.

All attempts to predict Herter's performance are off if the Soviets should create a major new crisis between now and the time he and the Eisenhower administration go out of office in January 1961.

Then he would probably need all the forcefulness and inventiveness he could muster.

Parisian style designers have been asked by the Soviet Chamber of Commerce to stage a fashion show in the Russian capital. However, we expect it'll be sometime before a "Moscow Look" sweeps the world of haute couture.

Lounging clothes will be among styles shown in Moscow, say the French fashioniers. Lounging clothes? — in the land of workers and peasants?

Another item of the Moscow fashion show will be cocktail dresses, renamed, no doubt, "vodka gowns."

The whole idea arose from Premier Khrushchev's campaign to have Russians rid themselves of the traditional padded cotton jackets. Can't blame Conrade K for wanting the Russians to look like human beings instead of badly stuffed sausages.

Meanwhile, back at the ranch, we learn there'll be even more TV westerns next season. For the giddyap dramas, it's far from the last roundup.

Japan will soon issue new currency which can be put through an automatic washer without damage to the paper bills. Does this mean an eventual end to the grand old phrase "filthy lucre"?

Mrs. Bales Reports To DAR On Continental Congress

Revealing, personal glimpses of Continental Congress were imparted to Pickaway Plains Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Paul Wendell Gearhart, Chillicothe. Mrs. Sterling Poling was introduced as a new member and Mrs. Cath Boye Kjar of Aarhus, Denmark was welcomed as a guest.

Narrating some of the episodes of Continental Congress, the Regent, Mrs. R. R. Bales surveyed the entire scene of the national conference held in Washington D. C. Principal addresses were made by President General Mrs. Frederick Groves, U. S. Army Chief of Staff Gen. Maxwell Taylor and Senator Herman Talmadge. Mrs. Samuel J. Holt read excerpts from the book "Martha Washington" by William Marshall and actor George Murphy spoke on the subject of better American film exports to create a more favorable impression of American life.

The entrance march beginning opening night ceremonies, the Ohio Party, announcements of motion picture, TV and Radio awards, and the stir and excitement surrounding the election of a new President General, Mrs. Ashmead White of Maine, rated especially high in color and dramatic appeal. 22,000 new genealogical lines were verified and many other improvements and additions recorded in DAR service. The banquet for the final evening was attended by 1600 delegates. The regent and Miss Marie Hamilton were accorded, for one afternoon, the honor of assuming hostess duties in the Ohio Room.

Mrs. Martin Cromley, Ashville and Miss Marie Hamilton, 153 W. High St., also attended the Continental Congress session and will make their reports at a future meeting.

Preceding the meeting, everyone was invited to the tea table presided over by Mrs. Bales and Mrs. W. L. Mack for refreshments served by the hostesses: Mrs. Paul H. Gearhart, Mrs. Leslie May, Mrs. Lawrence Johnson, Miss Dorothy McArthur, Mrs. J. B. Stevenson, Mrs. John Downs, Miss Marie Hamilton, Miss Elizabeth Stevenson, Mrs. T. E. Wilson.

The meeting was called to order and minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Richard Hedges. Correspondence read before the group included notification of an open meeting on Civil Defense to be held in Circleville High School auditorium, June 3, and greetings from the newly elected state regent, Mrs. Stanley Houghton, advising of the regents' meeting, June 10 at Lincold Lodge, Columbus.

Mrs. Forest Croman reminded members that the June meeting at the Ohio Union, OSU campus, will be a guest luncheon and to watch for an announcement of reservations. She then introduced Miss Susan Gearhart who entertained with a piano solo "Waltz" by Burgmuller.

Before adjourning the meeting, the regent made a final plea for old tags to complete this fund raising project, due to be discontinued.

Thursday evening the chapter will be in charge of the tea service at the Presbyterian Church for the Women's Association social session which everyone is urged to attend.

AAUW Plans Dinner Meeting On Monday

The Circleville Branch of the American Assn. of University Women will have a carry in dinner at 6:30 p. m. Monday, at the home of Mrs. M. M. Harcourt, 228 Cedar Heights Road.

Officers for the coming year will be installed during the business meeting and a program planning session will be held.

Co-hostesses are Miss Wilma Lou Borror, Mrs. Gordon Anderson, Mrs. Charles Jones, and Mrs. Leland Dunkle.

Each member is requested to bring her table service.

EUB Class Donates To Roofing Fund

When the Dorcas Pathfinders Class of Calvary EUB Church met last week in the home of Mrs. Harry Hosler, 321 S. Scioto St., it was decided by the members to make a donation to the church roofing fund. A "traveling bank" was also started.

Get well cards were signed to be sent to six members of the class who are ill.

Refreshments were served by the hostess who was assisted by Mrs. Landon Holbrook.

Hostesses for the next meeting will be Jeanie Dean and Gladys Hatfield.

Guests for the evening were Mrs. Russell Goldman and Mrs. Landon Holbrook.

St. Paul WWSW Members Plan Tea

The WWSW of St. Paul EUB Church, Stoutsville, will hold its Mother-Daughter Tea at 7:30 p. m. Saturday, at the church. Mrs. Loring Leist and daughters, Weta Mae and Betty are hostesses.

Boiled corn beef can be pressed in a loaf pan—place a heavy weight in another loaf pan and put on top of meat; refrigerate until chilled and juices are pressed out and jellied.

Former Pastor Speaks at WSWS Banquet

The WWSW of East Ringgold EUB Church held a banquet recently in Kern's Restaurant.

The color scheme was green, yellow and white and was carried out in the decorations and place cards.

Mrs. Austin Hurley, treasurer, served as toastmistress for the affair.

The welcome was given by Clara Drum, president; the Rev. Wilbur Crace offered prayer.

The speaker was then introduced — a former pastor of the church, The Rev. Fred Ketner, Columbus.

At the close of the program, Miss Anna Kaiser, the out-going president, was presented with a gift.

Those attending were the Rev. and Mrs. Wilbur Crace, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Peters, Mrs. Harry Betz, Miss Mary Kaiser, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Drum, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Drum, Mr. and Mrs. Orwin Drum and Donna, Mrs. Melvin Barr, Mrs. Carl Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Peters, the Rev. and Mrs. Fred Ketner, Miss Anna Kaiser, Mr. Alford Brooks and Mrs. Austin Hurley and Patty.

EUB Group Hears Hawaii Program

Mrs. Clifford Hedges and Mrs. J. Boyd Stout presented their program on Hawaii at the meeting of the WWSW held recently at Calvary EUB Church.

Mrs. Earl Milliron opened the meeting with an organ prelude. Group singing of "Open My Eyes" and "Jesus Calls Us" followed. Mrs. Clark Zwyer then read from Matthew 5 verses 1-16 which was followed by the Lord's prayer.

An article was read by Mrs. Manley Carothers entitled, "What Is Gratitude?"

Refreshments were served to members and guests by Mrs. Ray Anderson and Mrs. Jennie Dean.

Ruth Circle Holds Auction At Meet

An auction was held at the meeting of the Ruth Circle when it met last week at the home of Mrs. Earl Radcliff, Rosewood Ave.

The program was conducted with readings from Mrs. LeRoy Thomas, Mrs. Charles Ater, Miss Marie Goodman and Mrs. Kelly Alderman, Mrs. George Ankrom, Miss Goodman and Mrs. Clifford Davis were in charge of the program.

Refreshments were served by the hostess who was assisted by Mrs. Elizabeth Phillips.

Mrs. Neff Is Oldest Mother At Mother-Daughter Fete

Mrs. John Adler was the toastmistress for the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet held last night in the Lutheran Parish House. Mrs. Adler's mother, Mrs. Gomaz came from Richmond, Ind., to be with her daughter.

The invocation was given by Mrs. Carl Zehner. During the program the toast to the daughters was given by Mrs. Lloyd Fisher and a response was given by her daughter, Miss Jeannie Edgington.

A group of Junior Missionary girls presented a musical skit, which was narrated by Miss Ann Weidinger. Taking part were: Ann Guenther, Christine Zehner, Judy and Nancy Pickel, Elizabeth Moon, Kathy Henn, Ellisa Evans, Linda Riegel, Sandra Weidinger, Becky Snyder and Peggy Steinhouser.

The skit was titled, "The Musical Life of a Daughter" and was composed and directed by Mrs. M. D. Lorentz.

The honor of being the youngest mother present went to Mrs. David List. The oldest mother present was Mrs. Amanda Neff who is 91. She attended the event with her daughter, Mrs. Dudley Carpenter.

The work of the Lutheran church in India was stressed by Mrs. Robert Moon who is the India work chairman. A free will offering was taken for this work.

To emphasize the needs of India, the speaker for the evening was Miss Justina Eich, former dean of women at Capital University. Miss Eich took a trip to India several years ago, and she showed her colored slides and told in a graphic way about her trip and about India. The meeting closed with a prayer by Mrs. John Dietrich.

Mrs. Russell Skaggs and Mrs. Harry Barthelmas, Sr. were co-chairmen in charge of the meal preparation. Mrs. Walter Pickel was the dining room chairman.

Three volunteers from each Circle comprised the cleanup committee.

Anna Kaiser Feted With Crystal Shower

Miss Anna Kaiser, Ashville, the bride-elect of Mr. Alford Brooks, was honored by Mrs. Harry E. Betz, 105 Reber Ave., with a crystal shower Monday evening.

Green and yellow were the colors used in the decoration scheme with a sprinkling can and an umbrella suspended above the shower of gifts.

Games were played and prizes won by Mrs. Robert Shaeffer and Miss Marvene Wilson.

Miss Kaiser was seated at the dining table to open her gifts.

A dessert course was served by the hostess who was assisted by Mrs. Orwin Drum, to the following guests: Mrs. Robert Stephens, Mrs. Robert Shaeffer, Mrs. Stillman Morrison, Mrs. Walter Russell, Mrs. Melvin Dresbach, Miss Marvene Wilson, Miss Mary Ward, Miss Mildred Hancher, Miss Edna Franks, Miss Florence Hoffman, Miss Mary Kaiser and the honored guest.

1958 Graduate Weds Canal Winchester Man

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Arledge, Lancaster, are announcing the marriage of their daughter Teresa Ann to Mr. Michael Gerald Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Edward Murphy, Canal Winchester.

The marriage was performed March 19 by the Reverend Vanus E. Smith in Hebron.

The new Mrs. Murphy is a graduate of Circleville High School with the class of 1958, and is now attending Ohio University Branch College in Lancaster.

Mr. Murphy is a graduate of Canal Winchester High School with the class of 1957, and is presently employed by M. and W. Masonry Contractors Company in Columbus.

The young couple lives in Canal Winchester.

EUB Class Holds Dinner Meet At Lake White

The Kappa Beta Class of First EUB Church met yesterday evening at the Lake White Club, Waverly for a dinner meeting.

Afterwards the members returned to the home of the Misses Virginia and Leona Wise, 531 E. Franklin St. for the business meeting and program.

The meeting opened with the song "Isn't He Wonderful?"

Committees were appointed for the coming year; they are, Mrs. Bill Lockard, publicity; Miss Olive Ward, attendance cards; Mrs. Tom Weaver, personal cards; Mrs. Sandra Miller, chairman, and Miss Marilyn Francis, gift committee; Mrs. Woodrow Carley, chairman, Miss Virginia Wise and Mrs. Lockard, calendar committee, Miss Phyllis Hawkes, Miss Delores Mavis and Miss Leona Wise, contact committee.

The next meeting will be a carry-in dinner, June 23, at the home of the Misses Wise.

Harriman Seeks Nod To Visit Red China

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former New York Gov. W. Averell Harriman has applied for permission to enter Communist China as a newspaper correspondent.

Harriman now is touring the Soviet Union as a private citizen. He would represent the North American Newspaper Alliance in Red China.

The State Department said it has taken the request under advisement.

National PTA Plans Television Ratings

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—The National Congress of Parents and Teachers next fall will begin screening television programs as a guide for parents.

Ratings will be published in the organization's monthly magazine, National Parent-Teacher. A similar rating for movies long has been a feature of the magazine.

ROYAL ROMANCE SNAGGED—These sweethearts, Nepal's Prince Basundhara Bir Bikram Shah, 36, and Lynn Waldron, 22, Pepper Pike, O., a Cleveland suburb, are languishing thousands of miles apart because of what is believed to be palace intrigue and maybe a touch of the Tibet situation. They met when she was in his capital, Katmandu, on a world tour. They got engaged recently. Now it is reported the mother of King Mahendra (Basundhara's 37-year-old brother) has influenced a "no" to the marriage. King Mahendra's father had two wives. Basundhara's mother was the other one. Lynn writes every day, but few letters get to her prince, who is reported incommunicado in the palace.

"Spring Carnival" Theme Chosen For Flower Show

It's to be a "Carnival of Spring" this year when the Pickaway Garden Club holds its annual flower show at the Lutheran Parish House May 27.

The general public is invited to the flower show between the hours of 3 and 5 p. m. and 7 to 9 p. m. A tea has been planned for the visitors.

A real festival of flowers it will be with 20 classes in the three specimen divisions and 14 classes in the five arrangement sections.

The classes are named in true carnival spirit. The "Parade" division includes three classes; "The Band", "The Animals Two by Two" and "Bare Back Riders".

THEN THERE are sections entitled "Side Show", "Big Top", "Time Out for Refreshments" and "The Rides".

The section "Time Out for Refreshments" is for junior exhibitors—one class for youngsters between 6 and 10 and one for the 11 to 16 age group.

Something entirely new in flower shows in this area is the section open only to persons working for ribbons in preparation for their judships.

All residents of Pickaway County have been invited to make entries in the show. In the classes open to persons working on judships, entries may be made from outside the county.

Mrs. James Moffitt, E. Franklin St., and Mrs. James Ott, Chillicothe, are co-chairmen of the affair. Mrs. L. E. Foreman, Park

Place, is in charge of the tea. The complete schedule follows:

SPECIMEN CLASSES

Section I—Roses

Class 1—1 bloom-pink; Class 2—1 bloom-red; Class 3—1 bloom-white; Class 4—1 bloom-yellow; Class 5—1 bloom-Peace; Class 6—1 bloom-Pink Peace; Class 7—1 bloom two tone; Class 8—1 stem Lavender; Class 9—1 stem Grandiflora; Class 10—1 stem Floribunda; Class 11—1 stem Hybrid Climber.

Section II—House Plants

Class 12—African Violets, single; Class 13—African Violets, double; Class 14—Other House Plants, such as Vines, Begonia, Fern, Foliage plants and Succulents to be subdivided by species.

Section III—Spring Flowers

Class 15—1 stem peony a) single, b) double; Class 16—1 stem lily, a) daylily; Class 17—1 stalk delphinium; Class 18—1 stalk iris to be subdivided by color; Class 19—1 stem Daisy; Class 10—1 stem of any other flower.

ARRANGEMENT CLASSES

Section IV—"Parade"

Class 1—"The Band"—denoting rhythm; Class 2—"The Animals 2 by 2"—a paired arrangement; Class 3—"Bare Back Riders"—predominately white arrangement.

Section V—"Side Show"

Class 4—"The Fat Lady"—mass arrangement; Class 5—"The Sword Swallower"—line arrangement; Class 6—"The Game of Chance"—a novice class for those who have never won a blue ribbon.

Section VI—"Big Top"

Class 7—"Cotton Candy"—roses only—other foliage permitted; Class 8—"The Center Ring"—aerial artist—crescent arrangement; Class 9—"The Clowns"—an arrangement in vivid color.

Section VII

"Time Out for Refreshments"

Class 10—"Pop Corn and Pink Lemonade"—6 years through 10; Class 11—"Souvenirs"—11 years through 16.

Section VIII—"The Rides"

To be staged against a Boston Screen. This section open to all persons trying for ribbons in preparation for their judships.

Class 12—"The Whip"—a zig-zag arrangement; Class 13—"The Merry-Go-Round"—a mass; Class 14—"The Twister"—denoting rhythm.

1. All residents of Pickaway County are invited to enter one or all classes. Persons working towards their judships are invited to enter classes 12, 13 and 14 of section VIII, regardless of the county in which they reside. 2. Only one entry will be allowed each exhibitor in any one class. 3. Exhibitors must set up and complete exhibits between 9 a. m. and 11:30 a. m. and remove immediately after show.

4. Exhibitors will remain on the floor only while setting up exhibits. 5. Management will not be responsible for injury or loss. Mark all containers. 6. Specimen flowers must be grown by exhibitor and properly labeled. 7. All house plants must be in exhibitors possession at least 90 days before the show.

8. Judging will be according to the Handbook of Flower Shows of National Council. 9. Specimen roses shall be 1/2 to 3/4 open at time of judging. 10. The length of stems for all specimens shall not exceed 18 inches. 11. Accessories and foreign material will be permitted in any class.

12. Awards will be given for best composition class and for best of species. 13. Ribbons will be given in all classes. 14. Backgrounds will be used—all gray—sizes for large—38 1/2 inches high by 26 inches wide by 13 inches deep. Small screen—26 inches high by 17 1/2 inches wide by 10 inches deep.

Here is scale of points for judging arrangements—

Classes 1-8; design, 25; interpretation, 20; color, 15; relationship, 15; distinction, 10; condition, 10; Total, 100.

All other classes; design, 30; color, 20; suitable relationship of mat, 20; distinction, 10; originality, 10; condition, 10; Total, 100.

Bremen and Wellston

To Hold Flower Shows

Two flower shows which will prove interesting to gardeners are the Fairfield County Federated clubs show to be presented June 4 in Bremen at the Bremen School and the show sponsored by the Flora and Fauna Garden Club and the Wellston Rose Society on June 13 and 14. The Wellston show will be held at the Central School auditorium.

Both shows are open to the public. The show in Bremen, "Art with Flowers" may be visited from 2 to 8 p. m. while the show in Wellston may be visited from 12:30 to 9 p. m. June 13 and from 1:30 to 5 p. m. June 14.

How To Plant Shrubs

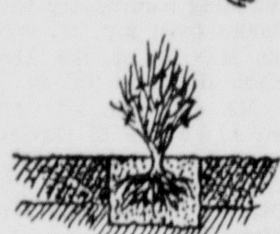

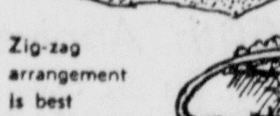

(2) Dig hole two feet wider and eight inches deeper than the root system.

Spacing Shrubs

Small Shrubs 3'-4' apart
Large Shrubs 5'-8' apart

Zig-zag arrangement is best

Prune as indicated. Reduce leaf surface one third by thinning and shortening branches. Preserve natural form of shrub.

The eventual success of most shrubs depends to a large extent on how carefully and correctly they are planted. The American Association of Nurserymen suggests that the five points illustrated are key factors to successful shrub planting. However, anyone buying shrubs should always get specific information concerning the particular item from the garden supply dealer or nurseryman who sold it to them.

Ohio Egg Prices At 'Rock Bottom'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Prices paid Ohio egg producers may have hit bottom, the state-federal Market News Service said today.

For about a week, the state's poultrymen have been getting an average of 19 1/2 cents a dozen, the agency said. A spokesman said many chain stores are selling grade A large eggs at three dozen for a dollar, and unclassified eggs at 29 cents a dozen.

Saltcreek Twp. Sets

Class Night Date

The Saltcreek Twp. High School senior class night will be held at 8 p. m. Friday in the school auditorium.

The valedictorian address will be given by Anne Swartz. Miss Alberta Archer will deliver the salutatory address.

Ohio Woman May Compete In Tourney

An Ohio woman, Mrs. John W. Knight, Jr., Cuyahoga Falls, was winner of the perpetual challenge trophy at the 1958 annual United States Sterling Bowl Tournament. This tournament is held at the Jackson and Perkins Rose Gardens, Newark, N. Y.

This year another Ohio woman and one well known to Garden Club of Ohio members may have a chance to compete. Mrs. Leona Dietz Jacobs, 204 E. Dorothy Lane, Dayton, has been named alternate in the Central Atlantic region.

This tournament is the only national competitive flower arranging tournament and 14 contestants from all over the United States will compete this year.

The coveted trophy is valued at $5000 and was designed for the competition by the nation's top silversmiths.

ALL CONTESTANTS were chosen from a list of the nation's top competitive arrangers, who were nominated by state and regional officers of the National Federation of Garden Clubs. Both Pickaway and Roundtown Garden clubs are affiliated with this organization.

Mrs. Jacobs, who as alternate, may compete for the trophy, is well known in Garden Club of Ohio circles. She is the sister of Mrs. Ralph Shoemaker, state president of Garden Club of Ohio.

The tournament is a feature of the 28th Rose Festival held annually at the Jackson and Perkins display gardens in Newark, N. Y.

Boston was founded in 1630.

Do's, Don'ts For Mowing.

The power mower of today is certainly nothing to be afraid of. It is designed to do a job well and safely, providing the operator knows and respects his machine.

The following are a few common sense safety rules to which every person should adhere:

1. Read the operator's instruction manual completely, and if a question still remains, check with your dealer.

2. Examine the power mower for safety and operating instructions printed on the housing or shroud.

3. Keep fuel in a safe place. Never smoke while fueling the mower.

4. When starting, make sure your foot is placed firmly on the top of the housing so that when the starter-rope is pulled the mower remains stationary.

5. Never attempt any service or removal of any object from the power mower while it's running. The mower should be turned off, the sparkplug wire disconnected before any attempt is made to work on the mower. This is a good time to check the blade nut to be sure it is on tight.

National Flower Fund Has Reached U.S. Senate

The matter of the national flower is far from settled. But the matter has gone as far as the U. S. Senate and we understand things got right heated. Heading the list are the corn tassel, the rose and the carnation.

Sen. Paul Douglas, the senator from Illinois and a Democrat, spoke up for the corn tassel.

And just in case somebody thinks differently, a professor of botany at Harvard says it is too a flower even if it doesn't look like one. It's the symbolism that intrigues Sen. Douglas who reminds us that corn was the basis of Indian civilization and the mainstay of the Jamestown settlers.

The Indians called it maize, their word for mother.

SEN. DOUGLAS admits the rose is pretty enough but it's the national flower of eight other countries, in short, "shopworn" says the senator.

One TV news commentator, weary of the argument, suggested salpiglossis instead of the rose, the corn tassel or the carnation. We think he was spoofing, perhaps fascinated by such a funny name.

Actually the salpiglossis is an easy-to-grow annual that is mighty pretty.

People Want Suggestions For Mailbox Planting

Everybody is saying, "What shall we use to landscape our mailbox?" Our answer is to plant some eye-catching annual that will bloom on or around August 1.

We'd say plant the seed in the vegetable garden and transplant when large enough. And, off hand, we'd say zinnias or marigolds because they are very easy to grow.

If you're lucky enough to have a fence in back of your mailbox, we'd suggest an easy-to-grow vine, honey suckle or morningglory. If there's no fence we'd suggest something tall for a background.

Since the corn tassel is well on its way to being our national flower why not plant two or three stalks of corn to serve as a tall background? Or if you have cannabulbs or dahlia tubers they'll be tall by August. Then transplant a half-dozen marigolds, the tall kind. Double sunflowers are nice and tall.

Swappin' Time Is Here Now

May is swapping time. If you have a surplus let the garden page editor know. Write what you have to swap in the plant line and what you would like in return. Give your name, address and telephone number.

So frequently when plants spread the gardener is inclined to think that every other gardener has a surplus of the same spreading plant.

Tisn't so. At the Mt. Pleasant Garden Club Swap in Kingston some of the more common things were much sought after.

Tell what you want but be amenable to other suggestions. For instance, you may want a bleeding heart and have only false dragonhead to swap. That's not an even swap.

BLEEDING HEARTS are not too common nor can they be easily disturbed. But maybe instead of a bleeding heart you'll get a start of a bitter sweet vine, something you wanted.

It's lots of fun making a deal. And it's sort of sad to throw away plants that people want and need.

Vermont is the only New England state entirely inland.

IF YOU HAVE an excess of some perennial plant like phlox which blooms about this time plant is there at your mailbox.

Walter Parker at Whisler has iris blooming around his mailbox now. It's a mighty pretty sight. Only of course by August the iris won't be blooming.

Don't forget you may be the winner of one of the 11 nice prizes!

TROPHY WINNER IN 1958 — Mrs. John W. Knight Jr., Cuyahoga Falls, won the U. S. Sterling Bowl Contest with this arrangement last year at the Rose Festival in Newark, N.Y. Only roses, of course, are ever used in this contest. In the coming show, to be presented by Pickaway Garden Club May 27, there is only one class limited entirely to roses.

Send flowers to comfort the lonely hours

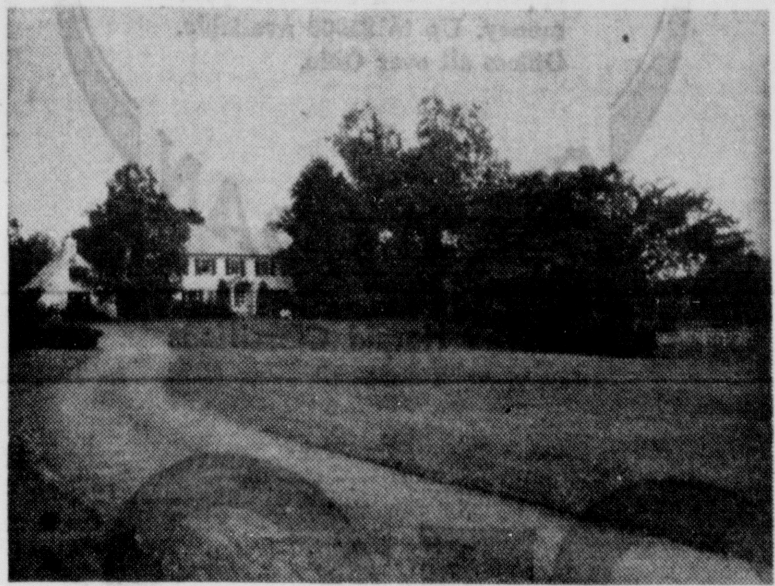

For those moments of inescapable loneliness—flowers spread their welcome balm throughout the home. Quietly, delicately, surely, their beauty lifts the sorrowing heart. They provide a comfort that is singularly personal. You can always say it with flowers, confident that your expression of sympathy will lessen the lonely hours of heartache.

Eshelmans Plan Landscape Design For "Willow Bank"

"WILLOW BANK" — It's perfectly evident why the John W. Eshelmans call their place by this name. "Willow Bank" is a fine example of what a do-it-yourself landscape designer may turn out. (Staff Photo)

When a homeowner has passers-by murmuring, "What beautiful grounds!" instead of "What a nice lawn", then that homeowner has accomplished something of an achievement.

And that's what passers-by murmur when they look at "Willow Bank", the John W. Eshelman place on N. Pickaway St. The Eshelman acreage is a beautifully landscaped home site which includes 10 acres (rough estimate).

The extensive lawn at "Willow Bank" has so gracious a sweep that the Eshelman place just misses being in the "estate echelon". Well-placed shrubs and groups of trees serve to accent the spaciousness of the lawn.

And according to Mrs. Eshelman, just 20 years ago, come

August the family moved into their new home and started landscaping the acres which only the year before had been fields of corn and rye.

PERHAPS the most interesting part of all is that the charmingly landscaped site, that looks as though it had been there generations untold, is largely the result of a do-it-yourself project.

Mrs. Eshelman says that her husband talked his plans over with M. M. Hoff the greenhouse man at Ashville. But by and large the well-designed landscape plan is her husband's work.

And work it meant. For six or eight years John Eshelman gave up golfing almost entirely and spent his leisure time landscaping "Willow Bank".

Medical Herbs Are Found At Adena

Medicinal herbs went out of fashion along with hoop skirts. Few contemporary herb gardens include them. But at Adena in Chillicothe, where the emphasis is on things as they used to be, the herb garden includes many such plants.

There is garden thyme formerly used as a sedative for whooping cough and indigestion.

At Adena one finds ambrosia used at one time for chest ailments and as a vermifuge. Rose germander, which makes such an excellent edging plant, was used to reduce fever in olden times.

Garden violets were made into a syrup and taken as a mild laxative.

A TEA WAS made from fraxinella which was used to combat hysteria and fevers.

Copper fennel was used medicinally for chest diseases and an eye lotion.

Summer savory was applied on bee stings while curly mint was used medicinally for colic, cholera and diarrhea.

Pot marigold was made into a tea to hasten the eruption of measles. And sage was a cold remedy and used to cure sore throats.

Perhaps the most useful of all was coriander which made the other medicines more palatable.

These and many more are to be found in the herb garden at Adena. Looking over the list there is no doubt but that Eleanor Worthington could have cured the governor and everybody else in the household of whatever happened to ail them.

The tall pines flanking the entrance and planted here and there on the lawns were once tiny pines that started out in a nursery row near the house. They were set out in their permanent places only after they had achieved the proper size.

The handsome young oaks that already tower above the house were once baby oaks that Eshelmans brought from their farm.

"Willow Bank" is really a symphony in green. The shrubs are colorful at blooming time. The lilacs, for instance are in bloom. The spirea with its plumes of white makes a stunning effect now. But actually the Eshelmans have played down the flowers.

MRS. ESHELMAN loves flowers and feels "quite guilty" that she does not have more. "The reason is," she confided, "that it's so hard for John to trim around flowers." So Mrs. Eshelman only has a round rosebed tucked away in a corner not too far from the house. She also has a tiny rock garden on a bank and the annuals "which never amount to much", and, of course, a few bulbs.

Garden Gossip

Well, May 15, is supposed to be the frost date for this part of Ohio. And what happens? There's a real dinger on May 16. Joe Stump, Route 4, Circleville reports frosted tomatoes and beans. And potatoes in the Circleville vicinity were blackened. It was so cold that according to Mrs. Jake Bond, Kingston, her windshield wiper was frozen to the windshield.

With the ground so wet and cold, Miss Doris Allen, Route 1, Kingston, says they'd be better off if their corn were "still in the sack instead of the ground".

But the frost did not hurt the poppies. Mrs. Harley Moss, Whisler storekeeper, says that on a drive Sunday afternoon she never saw so many big red poppies blooming.

Mrs. Wells Wilson, the vet's wife, says that she spent the spring worrying about the poor people who lost their hybrid tea roses this last winter. It never occurred to her that their own multifloras would winter kill. But that's what happened. The long rose hedge at the Wilsons looked so beat up we called to see if the doctor had sprayed it with weed killer (some people are taking out their multifloras). But Mrs. Wilson says that's just what the cold winter did. There are signs that the roses will come up again. But it was a sad fate indeed for the Wilsons who call their farm "Rose Lane".

Mrs. Sam Hunter, Whisler, has not taken chances with her dahlias on these cold nights. They have been planted for three weeks, are up six inches or more. She carefully covered her plants. Mrs.

The planting around the simple and charming colonial style house is mostly pfitzer juniper and euonymus with a thick undercover of myrtle. The walks are flagstone.

If passers-by think "Willow Bank" lawns are impressive from the street they would be even more impressed with the flow and sweep of the land from the house. Though there are shrubby groups and trees there is always an open vista to intrigue the eye. To the south the lawn sweeps down to a meadow bordered by a creek. To the east back of the house another meadow. There's an orchard too with plum, peaches and apple trees.

If the passer-by wonders about maintenance of so spacious a lawn it does not seem to bother Mrs. Eshelman. She's a lot luckier than women with smaller yards to cut. They, on occasion, take over the grass cutting. But the turf area at "Willow Bank" is so extensive it's entirely out of Mrs. Eshelman's jurisdiction.

It's quite evidently "up to John". And we gathered that John took it in his stride. He has two men who come regularly. Ervin Koehler and Hunter has dahlias that bloom very early. Most people wait for the frost date.

LORING HILL, Kingston, ever the one to try something new, is planting one of the flower seed mats with the seeds all planted for you. All the gardener has to do is spread out this magic mat, keep it damp and watch it grow. Mrs. David Craven had good luck with hers last year at 1051 Lynwood Ave.

The 21st annual rose show sponsored by the Columbus Rose Society is set for June 7 at the Youth Center Building, Ohio State Fairgrounds. The public is invited. Admission free, as usual. The hours for viewing are from 1:30 to 7 p. m.

For local people seriously interested in showing roses at this big exhibit schedules may be obtained from Ezra Antasett, 911 E. Broad St., Columbus 5.

It's the big time for iris fanciers now. People like Miss Ethel Kiger, Route 1, Circleville, and Mrs. William Defenbaugh, Route 1, Laurelville, go out each morning to see their new iris. All fanciers add a few new varieties each year.

L. A. Scranton, 940 S. Pickaway St., was one of the few local people with the lavender rose, Sterling Silver, last year. We called to see how it had weathered the below-zero temperature. Not too well, according to Scranton, but there's one green shoot. However Scranton is not complaining; he only lost four roses out of 24.

And Mrs. Scranton arrived at school the other day with a Lowell Thomas blossom. Pretty early for a hybrid tea to bloom!

The diminutive Mrs. John Dunlap Jr., Williamsport, admitted the other day that she is no hand with a spade. She puts her foot on the spade and shoves, the way everybody else does, but nothing happens. We should have suggested a lady's spade to her. They are available at the hardware stores and the ladies love 'em.

Speaking of frost damage, the 30-year-old boxwoods surrounding the patio at the John W. Eshelman place were badly damaged.

Willie Poindexter. And most of the mowing is done by tractor. The tractor work takes almost a full day and the hand mowing and trimming up take another day. Incidentally, John's back at his golf now.

Young women would do well to follow Mrs. Eshelman's example. If their husbands are strictly grass and tree men and hate to trim around flower beds they should be given their way.

Who knows in 20 years your own "grounds" may be looking like "Willow Bank".

Loring Hill, Of Kingston, Chats About His Garden

Gardeners, the county over, stop Loring Hill when they meet him on the street to talk "garden" with him. He always has plenty to say. Never satisfied to rest on his laurels he's always planting new material.

This year he ordered hardy dahlias. Yes, hardy enough to leave the tubers out all winter!

And he ordered a wonder tree which looks quite a little like a Golden Chain tree and he admits laughingly that it may turn out to be a Golden Chain tree but the description was so beautiful he could not resist it.

The dove tree? Well his dove tree winter - killed at the top but seems to be sprouting from the roots. Loring Hill is the only person in this area with a dove tree, one of the rarest trees in cultivation. From western China, the outstanding feature of the dove tree is its bracts of pure white enveloping the flower in June. These bracts, of unequal size, are constantly in motion and resemble doves in flight. It will grow ultimately to 40 feet. Hill's tree has never bloomed and now he'll have to wait a long time.

According to Loring Hill many people are asking about the breakfast held at his home each spring in connection with the Mt. Pleasant Garden Club. He says the next breakfast will be Flag Day of 1960. By that time he will have finished some major changes, one, I believe, is a canopy over the patio. But knowing Loring Hill's ever increasing pleasure in his garden, he'll have lots of new things by Flag Day of 1960 so gardeners are to keep that date in mind.

MRS. TURNEY PONTIUS and Mrs. Ed Fetherolf say the strawberry plants are loaded this year. So far, nobody has reported frost damage.

Phillip and Dennis Crosby: Twins but Very Different

Editor's Note: Following is the third in a series of four articles concerning Bing Crosby's four oldest sons and their trials and tribulations.

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Few twins are less alike than Phillip and Dennis Crosby, born four minutes apart 24 years ago.

Life Term Given Boy, 16, Slayer of 4

AUBURN, N.Y. (AP)—A 16-year-old farm boy who wiped out his family was sentenced today to imprisonment of 20 years to life. The judge recommended that fair-haired, clean-cut John A. Jayne never be released but tempered this with the notation that medical science might discover a satisfactory cure for mental illness and that, therefore, the sentence did not preclude parole.

Jayne, a high school sophomore, shot his father, mother, brother and sister last January after brooding over what he considered unfair treatment by the family, including a spanking by his father.

State psychiatrists found him legally sane but with tendencies toward schizophrenia, the disintegration of his personality. Jayne pleaded guilty this month to a second-degree murder charge. Judge Gerald S. Hewitt of Cayuga County Court imposed the maximum sentence—20 years to life—on each of four counts but said they should run concurrently.

Victims of the shooting were Jayne's father, Willis, 66, his mother, Amber, 59; his brother, Willard, 18; and his sister, Elizabeth Anne, 13.

OHIO FIVE DAY FORECAST

Temperatures will average 6-8 degrees above normal. Normal high 72 north, 76 south. Normal low 51 north, 54 south. Warm and humid until turning cooler about Saturday or Sunday. Precipitation will total one inch in showers or thundershowers about Saturday or Sunday.

cotton-top. He moves with the lumbering grace of a college football player, which he was at Washington State.

Dennis Michael Crosby is termed by his brothers the best natural athlete in the family, but he didn't have enough weight to play college football. Pale and sensitive looking, he is the shy one of the four. He also is the one with his father Bing's tendency to baldness, and he takes a ragging from his brothers about the toupees he wears for public appearances.

Different as they are in appearance and nature, the twins share one thing in common: domesticity. Both were wed to Las Vegas showgirls — Phil to Sandra Jo Drummond, Dennis to Pat Sheehan. Both have given Bing grandchildren. Dennis Michael Jr. was born in December; Phil's daughter Dixie Lee was born two weeks ago.

Unlike Gary and Lindsay, the twins seldom frequent Hollywood's night life. They entertain quietly in their homes. Phil lives in a handsome colonial house in Westwood, not far from the family mansion Bing now shares with his second wife, Kathryn Grant. Dennis has been living in Laurel Canyon, but is moving to a more sizable house with swimming pool in Brentwood. He has an adopted stepson, 7.

The twins followed Gary through grammar and prep schools but went to Washington State instead of Stanford. They went there for animal husbandry and agriculture courses because of Bing's wish for them to take over his big Elko, Nev., ranch. But they never made it. Why?

"The price of cattle dropped and I couldn't see it being a profitable business for the next 10 or 20 years," Phil explained. "Dad was losing money on the ranch; we couldn't expect him to hold onto it while we finished college and the Army."

Besides, the boys had fallen for show business. "I guess it was only natural after we had been around it all our lives," Dennis says.

PTAs Urged To Back U.S. School Aid

DENVER (AP)—A leading educator urged today that the nation's 45,200 local P-TA units throw their considerable weight behind a program of federal aid to education.

Martin Essex, president of the American Assn. of School Administrators and superintendent of schools in Akron, Ohio, said school financing is "one of America's national blind spots."

In a speech prepared for the 63rd annual convention of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, Essex said Americans are spending less for education now than they did 25 or 50 years ago.

"In 1902 education was financed by 17 per cent of all taxes and by 1932 it had risen to 25 per cent," he said. "Needless to say, education improved phenomenally during this period."

"Today only 12 per cent of all taxes go into schools. Education is not making progress commensu-

Goat 'Weathermen' Get Professors' Goat

ROSEBURG, Ore. (AP) — Oregon State College professors are taking an interest in the goats who forecast Roseburg's weather.

These goats roam wild on Mt. Nebo above Roseburg. Residents watch their movements closely. "The goats are up" is a heartening cry in Roseburg. Picnics are planned, golf dates are made and fishing trips planned. Invariably the sun shines.

But when the goats come down from Mt. Nebo to the shelter of shallow caves, bad weather inevitably follows.

Body Is Recovered

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Firemen recovered the body of Biagio Stefano, 67, from the Mahoning River, where he apparently drowned while swimming Tuesday. It was the first drowning here this year.

rate with the demand that confronts us."

Essex urged the 3,000 convention delegates to continue the fight for the best possible education for each child. To ignore the individual and concentrate on any elite group, he said, would be "unfair, unsatisfactory, and . . . in our enlightened times, inhumane."

BIG DIFFERENCE IN ECONOMY

USAC Plymouth, traditional economy champ, again won its class in the Mobilgas Economy Run... won for the third straight year! In this recognized competitive test for economy, a Plymouth V-8 averaged 21.15 miles per gallon. Plymouth's proven high gas mileage, initial low purchase price, low maintenance cost and good resale value all add up to the Big Difference in economy!

PLYMOUTH DELIVERS BIG DIFFERENCE IN PERFORMANCE

But you don't have to sacrifice performance to enjoy Plymouth's top economy. The Fury V-800 engine that powered the Plymouth to its Mobilgas victory is the biggest standard V-8 in Plymouth's field. Its 230 horsepower packs plenty of power.

BIG DIFFERENCE IN QUALITY

We sincerely believe that the '59 Plymouth is the finest car Plymouth has ever built. Check every inch of this car. See the difference great engineering makes.

TAKE A "TWO-MILE TRY-OUT" NOW!

Get behind the wheel of a Plymouth and really feel Plymouth's Big Difference. Take your "Try-Out" soon.

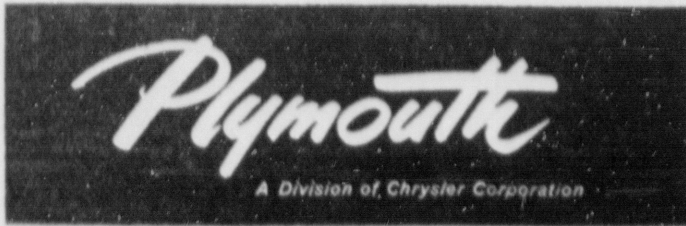

To be fully appreciated, must be driven...

BIG DIFFERENCE IN RIDE

Plymouth's famous Torsion-Aire Ride is the most comfortable ride on the road. It acts as a built-in road-leveler—it virtually eliminates roll or sway on turns—front end dive on stops. And it's yours at no extra cost on Plymouth.

BUT YOU DON'T PAY FOR THE DIFFERENCE

The top-selling, low-price cars are all priced about the same but only PLYMOUTH gives you the Big Difference for your money.

Champion Tigers End Season with 3-2 Win at FH

Coach Dick Fisher's Circleville High baseball crew ended its season with a victory ring yesterday by coming from behind to take a 3-2 verdict at Franklin Heights.

The Tigers knotted the game with two runs in the sixth inning and came back with one in the seventh to win their 16th game in 20 outings. This splendid record includes the South Central Ohio League championship.

Pitcher Don Rowland, winning his second game in two days, pushed his season mound record to 10 victories and no defeats, a fine mark for any high school pitcher.

Rowland gave up nine hits, but scattered them sufficiently to prevent serious damage. He blazed three strikes past 11 batters, walked one and bled down when runners were on the base paths.

BILL PURCELL, having difficulty his first three times at bat, stepped up in the seventh and lined a solid single into center which scored Terry Dean for the winning run. Dean had walked earlier in the frame.

Rowland aided his own cause by poking two of the Tiger's five hits, one of his blasts going for a double. He started the locals' rally in the sixth with a single and came home when big Harry Strawser rifled a one-bagger over second base.

Strawser crossed the plate with the tying run by virtue of a walk to Jim Woods with the bases loaded. The Tigers ended the inning with the bases still loaded, but this set the stage for the winning marker in the next frame.

Franklin Heights scored both its runs in the first inning on two

Star Redleg Pair Marking Hits, Errors

LOS ANGELES (AP) — McMillan-Temple, Temple — McMillan: This is one of the superb double-play combinations of the National League. These two Cincinnati Reds are also something of a puzzle right now.

Shortstop Roy McMillan and second baseman John Temple are slender, wiry infielders who have one curious trait in common: They both seem to have suddenly turned into sluggers this season.

It's too early to say for sure, but they both seem to be also making a lot more errors than usual. Their errors Tuesday night complicated the two rallies that brought Los Angeles' Dodgers a 6-4 victory over the Reds.

Temple's batting is up in the rarified .340 area and McMillan has already hit four homers—twice as many for him as in 1957-1958 combined.

But disconcerting errors by the two keep cropping up. Los Angeles started the sixth inning with singles by Joe Pignatano and Bob Lillis. Then Temple snared an easy grounder but threw wildly to first, scoring the first run of a four-run rally.

There were two outs in the ninth when Cincinnati made its final effort to recoup. Frank Robinson walked, and singles by Frank Thomas and Gus Bell put one run across. Then Clem Labine struck out Jerry Lynch to end it.

Temple had tripled in a tie-breaker run in the fourth. In the third, a walk and two singles had scored one Dodger run. McMillan bobbled Don Demeter's grounder, loading the bases, and the tying marker came in while Temple caught Norm Larker at first.

Tribe Off On Lengthy Road Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — When Cleveland left on the start of a long road trip two weeks ago, Manager Joe Gordon said he would be satisfied if the team won seven of the 13 scheduled games. He felt it would be enough to keep the Indians in first place. He was right.

If Cleveland closes the trip with a victory over Washington tonight, it will be the seventh against five losses (one game was rained out) and it will assure the Indians of the American League lead. The Tribe opens a four-game series at home Friday night with the Detroit Tigers.

With Jim (Mudcat) Grant posting his seventh straight victory over the Senators, Cleveland won 5-2 here Tuesday night on home runs by Rocky Colavito, his 12th, and Jim Piersall and Woodie Held.

The triumph moved the Indians back into first place, a half game ahead of the Chicago White Sox, who bowed 2-1 to Baltimore.

Grant, who seems to have a magic touch over the Senators, won his third straight without a loss this season, two of them over Washington.

The young right-hander permitted only five hits in the seven innings he worked. He needed relief from Dick Brodowski when his right shoulder stiffened.

Colavito's second inning homer started a three-run rally off starter Hal Griggs. Minnie Minoso and Held singled after the home run. A sacrifice fly by Hal Naragon scored another run.

Ray Webster singled and Jim Piersall drove in the third run with a single to left.

The Senators scored a run in the second on three walks and a sacrifice fly.

Piersall's homer in the fifth and Held's in the sixth wound up the Indians' scoring.

Herb Score (3-2) will pitch for Cleveland tonight against Russ Kemmerer (4-2).

BOOSTER POLIO SHOTS RECOMMENDED

Q. What is the latest information concerning use of booster polio shots?

A. Work done at Vanderbilt University suggests that it might be best to give a booster polio shot about 12 months after the last of the original series of three injections. The American Academy of Pediatrics goes along with this recommendation, saying that a fourth shot is advisable although not mandatory. Consult your doctor about booster polio vaccine before the polio season sets in.

Q. What causes formation of tartar on the teeth?

A. A current view is that tartar forms around clusters of bacteria and debris that collect on the teeth. Certain things tend to encourage tartar formation, such as lack of friction, irregularities of the teeth, and roughness of the tooth surface. Excessive tartar formation damages the gums and may lead to pyorrhea. Visit your dentist at least twice a year.

Q. My three-year-old seems to have a special fondness for chalky substances such as plaster. Is this harmful?

A. Fondness for substances not ordinarily considered edible (doctors call it pica) can lead to trouble. Most babies will put almost anything in the mouth but pica after 18 months of age should be considered abnormal. In most cases of pica the child is "addicted" to some particular substance like plaster. The situation is worse if the youngster takes a liking to dried paint or other lead-containing materials. Day to day nibbling of paint often leads to chronic lead poisoning with possible damage to the brain and other body tissues. So don't take pica lightly. Use no-lead paints for baby beds and play pens. Protect the youngster in every way possible until they are old enough to be taught better.

Answers do not necessarily reflect the opinion of all doctors. The diagnosis and treatment of disease is the function of the patient's personal physician.

Hannahs 4th In Hurdles at District Meet

Circleville High School had several cindermen participating in the Central District Class AA track meet held Friday and Saturday at Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware.

The locals picked up two points in the annual meet which included about 30 high schools. The Tigers' points came on the strength of Larry Hannahs' fourth place in the 120-yard high hurdles.

Hannahs cleared the boards in 15.5. He might have finished higher if he had not unfortunately kicked a hurdle near the finish.

Columbus East High School won the meet with 62 points, far ahead of second place North High of Columbus which tallied 30-1-3.

OTHER locals participating included Junior Denny, Bob Shadley, Bob Jones, Gary Vandemark and Dick Gerhardt.

Shadley, running the 880 in 2:08, and Jones, pacing the mile in 5:10, marked their best times of the year. Gerhardt turned in one of his best discus throws by hurling the plate 119 feet.

Denny high jumped 5' 8" and Vandemark 5' 6" for two of their better jumps of the year. Denny also recorded his best broad jump of the year, a 20' 8 3/4" leap.

The CHS mile relay team finished in 3:41. The winning time was 3:29.5.

The district event ended season competition for Coach John Current's thinlins.

Arctic Fishing Spa Readied

Seal Hunting Is Also Planned by Canada

OTTAWA, Ont. (AP)—The first two sportsmen's camps north of the Canadian treeline are expected to begin operating this year, accommodating anglers willing to pay for the privilege of fishing for arctic char.

Officials of the Northern Affairs Department expect more camps to follow. Seal hunting also is being planned on a limited basis.

Both fishing camps will be located in southern Baffin Island in the eastern Arctic—just across Hudson Strait from the northern tip of Ungava.

The largest is expected to be an operation by former bush pilot Rex Clibbery of Winnipeg and Kenora, Ont., at a site on Frobisher Bay, about 50 miles east of the town of Frobisher. He aims to charge $1,500 for a week's stay—including flight in and out.

The other camp will be at Cape Dorset at the southwestern end of Baffin Island. It will be operated by about seven eskimos.

The basis of the fledgling industry is a pink-fleshed fish occurring both in rivers and the ocean almost as far north as scientists have run tests. Arctic char are rated excellent sport, may reach 15 pounds in weight and are taken best on wet-line lures.

The Dorset camp will limit its sportsmen to some 20 a year. They will be flown in by Austen Airways from Moosonee, Ont.

Darby Takes Baseball Title For 3rd County Sports Crown

Darby added a third 1958-59 Pickaway County crown to its trophy room with acquisition of the baseball title yesterday over Jackson, 7-2. It already won the football crown and tied for the basketball title.

The Trojans' Tommy Walters captured victory No. 11 without a defeat as he set the Wildcats down on the Scioto diamond.

Darby tallied one in each of the first two innings and wrapped up the contest with a four-run third inning at the expense of losing hurler, Jerry Brigner.

Jackson scored its two runs in the top of the second inning. Top hitting stars of the game were Darby's Ross Meyers and Jackson's Brigner with 2 for 4.

BRIGNER POKED a triple and Lynn Sheets smacked one for Darby. Doubles were recorded by Meyers and Jerry O'Connor, Jackson.

Walters tossed for six innings, allowing two hits, fanning 14 and walking nine. Twice he loaded the bases in different innings with no one out, only to escape without a tally.

Sheets hurled the final inning, allowing two walks, one hit and fanning one. Brigner handed out two bases on balls, struck out eight and allowed six hits.

Darby committed two errors and Jackson three. The Wildcats finished the year with a 6-4 slate. Darby registered a fine 12-1 record, losing only to Granville in Central District Class A baseball play.

It's Hard Job, But Baltimore Is Near Top of AL

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Those Baltimore Orioles are doing things the hard way and making it look easy while hovering near the American League lead.

They're third, 1½ games shy of first, after winning six of their last eight. But it hasn't been a breeze — not when they've had to take three of four from front-running Cleveland and Chicago's White Sox to do it.

Tuesday night, just 24 hours after Hec Brown and Billy Loes combined for a shutout that knocked Cleveland out of first, youngsters Billy O'Dell and Jerry Walker ended Chicago's brief stay on top by beating the White Sox 2-1. They did it with a joint-six-hitter backed up by O'Dell's game-winning inside-the-park home run.

Cleveland jumped back into the lead, a half-game ahead of Chicago, with a 5-2 victory at Washington. Last place Detroit moved within .025 percentage points of seventh-place New York by beating the Yankees 6-3. The Kansas City at Boston game was rained out.

O'Dell (2-2) gave up five of the White Sox hits, blanking them on three hits until the seventh, when he gave up a walk and singles by pinchhitter John Romano and Luis Aparicio. O'Dell called it quits in that inning, after bruising his leg fielding a grounder.

The Orioles, who now have won 10 of 13 one-run decisions, managed just four hits.

The Tigers, who can swap places with the Yankees by winning today's wrap-up of a two-game series, chased Whitey Ford (3-3) in a four-run first inning. They counted two more on Rocky Bridges' single in the fourth, then were blanked without a hit by Art Ditmar and Tom Sturdivant. The Yankees out-hit Detroit 12-8, but Don Mossi squared his record at 2-2 with his second victory over the Yankees.

Hank Aaron's been stopped, but the Milwaukee Braves are still rolling. After a week of winning they have a six-game streak and a 4½-game bulge, which might make it later than you think in that National League pennant race.

They have won six straight, longest success string of the year in the NL, after whipping San Francisco 8-1 Tuesday night. The only bright spot the Giants' pitching, which gave up 11 hits, was an 0-for-4 collar on Aaron, who had hit in 22 consecutive games.

The Chicago Cubs and Los Angeles tied for third, just .001 percentage points behind the Giants, when the Cubs handed Philadelphia a seventh straight defeat 8-7, and the Dodgers ended their losing string at five by beating Cincinnati 6-4. The St. Louis Cardinals won three in a row for the first time, beating Pittsburgh 8-2.

The Braves got it over with fast, scoring four runs in the first on Wes Covington's No. 2 homer, with two on, and Del Crandall's solo sixth homer. Covington, 3-for-4, drove in four runs as the Braves finally caught up with loser Jack Sanford. The big right-hander had beaten them three in a row since April 18 of last season.

The Dodgers made it with five unearned runs. Johnny Klippstein (4-0) was the winner as the second of four Dodger pitchers. Willard Schmidt (1-1) lost it.

A two-run pinch single by Jim Marshall capped a winning three-run ninth for the Cubs after the Phils had taken a 7-5 lead with three in the top of the ninth, two on Wally Post's pinch homer. Ex-Cub Taylor Phillips (0-3) lost it and Don Elston (3-1) won it, both in relief.

Gino Cimoli hammered a two-run homer and Bill White drove in three runs for the Cards as Larry Jackson (2-5) beat the Pirates with a nine-hitter. He blanked the Bucs after the third as the Cards beat Ron Kline (3-2).

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Just Tell Him the Truth, Ma'am

DEAR ABBY: My little four-year-old grandson pointed out a pregnant woman who was walking around the supermarket in a pair of short shorts. She must have been seven or eight months along. He asked me about her but I didn't know what to tell him. Don't you think it is too soon to tell the boy the true facts?

GRANDMA: The time to tell a child "the true facts" is when he asks.

DEAR ABBY: You sure gave that girl a bum steer when she wanted to know if she should accept an engagement ring by mail. I was overseas in '42 and wanted to nail my girl down with an engagement ring, so I sent it to my best buddy at home and asked him to slip it on her finger for me. He did. But he didn't stop there. He ended up by marrying my girl.

VOICE OF EXPERIENCE: DEAR VOICE: That was your fault. You should have known better than to send a rabbit to the store to bring home carrots.

DEAR ABBY: I've been married to a church-going hypocrite for nine years. I made my first mistake when I agreed to live with his mother. She's divorced, has a large comfortable home and my husband is her only child. She calls herself a Christian but is cruel beyond description. She told me she wished God would take her son as he'd be better off dead than married to a woman who can't give him children. The doctor says I've kept having miscarriages because I am in a constant nervous state. I'd dig ditches or scrub latrines if I could move out of this house, but my husband feels he owes his mother more than he owes me and he likes the money we're saving. What would you do?

LAST STRAW: DEAR LAST: A man should not be forced to choose between his mother, but in this case I'd throw the book at him. The Bible. "Therefore shall a man leave his mother and shall cleave unto his wife." (Genesis ii, 24.)

DEAR ABBY: My husband served time in a Federal Penitentiary. He is free now. His favorite sport was hunting. What I want to know is, is he allowed to get a permit to own a gun? Some say "yes" and some say "no." I'd appreciate an answer.

EX-CONS WIFE: DEAR WIFE: The Law varies in different states. (It's easier to own a gun in Texas than it is in Illinois.) Get in touch with your District Attorney and let him acquaint you with the local law.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Detroit Weakness Said in Bullpen

NEW YORK (AP) — Jimmy Dykes says there is nothing wrong with his Detroit Tigers that a good bullpen wouldn't cure.

"It's a good ball club," the veteran of many managerial and coaching jobs says of the team he suddenly found himself directing about three weeks ago when Bill Norman was fired.

"The one thing wrong is that when we have to go to the bullpen we're in trouble. We could use one or two more starters, too."

The Tigers' bullpen trouble traces to the inability of Paul Foytack to perform as expected. He's started eight times and has yet to go the route.

Scouts, Scouters Honored At Pickaway Annual Meeting

The Pickaway Boy Scout District held its annual meeting Monday in the Fairgrounds Coliseum. The dinner was carry-in style. Opening ceremonies were conducted by Explorer Post 3. Emory Ridlon served as Toastmaster. District Commissioner Ed Ebert reported his group made 196 unit contacts during the year. Ten Roundtables were held for

Pickaway Twp. To Graduate 29 Seniors

DR. RICHARD M. MALL

The 44th annual commencement exercises of Pickaway Twp. High School will be held at 8 p. m. tomorrow in the school auditorium. A total of 29 seniors will be graduated.

The procession, "Pomp and Circumstance", will be played by the high school band. The Rev. Grace will deliver the invocation.

Nancy Wilson will give the salutatory address. Misses Janet Grissom and Beverly McKenzie will deliver the co-valetictory addresses.

The seniors will sing "Halls of Ivy", its alma mater and Benediction. The class address will be given by Dr. Richard M. Mall, Associate Professor of the Department of Speech at Ohio State University.

A NATIVE of Cambridge, Mass., Dr. Mall received his Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial Journalism at Kansas State College in 1940; his MA in speech at The Ohio State University in 1949, and his Ph.D., also at Ohio State, in 1952.

He served in the European Theater during World War II with the U. S. Army (Armor) from 1942 to 1946, receiving the Purple Heart and Bronze Star.

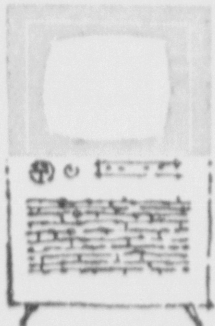

Prior to coming to Ohio State in 1947, he was an associate professor at Kansas State College. He worked with a number of radio stations in Missouri, Kansas and Ohio as an "on the air" performer and station executive.

Dr. Mall has conducted a number of audience research studies in Kansas and Ohio. Active in Columbus community affairs, he was 1957 chairman of the Christmas Seal campaign and co-founder of Operation MAPS, the greater Columbus safety operation.

He served as state radio and television coordinator for the Ohio State House Conference on Education in 1958; as state chairman for the "Voice of Democracy" contest sponsored by the NAB and Ohio Association of Broadcasters.

School supervising principal, Alfred Gabriel, will make the awards presentations and Dr. Wells Wilson, president of the Logan Elm Board of Education, will present the diplomas.

Cleveland Student Collapses in Gym Class

CLEVELAND (AP)—A 15-year-old student collapsed and died during a gym class at St. Ignatius High School Tuesday.

Thomas Carmody apparently died of a heart attack. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Carmody of University Heights, said he appeared in perfect health. The coroner will rule.

Ohio Senate Is Handed State Budget

program without regard to the needs of the people. They knew we were going to run out of money.

"We know this is a big budget. We know it is not popular to pass taxes. We know we are not doing the popular thing and we know some of us won't be back. But the only thing to do is the right thing. We can say we did it because it was needed."

In the showdown, nine Republicans joined the Democrats to send the budget bill to the Senate. Tablack said 50 per cent of the general fund budget—exclusive of highways—is for education, 22 per cent for welfare, health and safety and 16 per cent for mental hygiene and correction.

The Senate, in its major action of the day, passed and sent to the House a bill to replace the Ohio Water Resources Board with a nine-member Ohio Water Commission with authority to oversee the development of water resources for agriculture, industry and public use.

Under the bill sponsored by Sen. Danny D. Johnson (D-Tuscarawas), the governor would appoint six members, not more than four from either political party. Ex-officio members of the commission would be the directors of health, natural resources and public works.

The Senate also passed and sent to the House:

A resolution endorsing the "jobs after 40" campaign of the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

A bill to encourage a voluntary apprenticeship program through an apprenticeship council which would be established in the Department of Industrial Relations.

A bill to continue the activities, now scheduled to end in September, of the attorney general in settling canal lands boundary disputes.

The Senate virtually completed legislative action on a bill requiring school boards to give notice of contract salaries to non-teaching employees.

Ashville Pre-School Clinic Due May 28

The Pre-School Clinic for the first grade class starting at Ashville this fall will be held at 1 p. m. May 28 in the Ashville Elementary School. Children attending the clinic must be six years old by Sept. 1, 1959.

Those children whose sixth birthday falls between Sept. 1 and Nov. 1 will be notified around Aug. 1 so that they may take a mental development test to determine if they may attend also. These children will visit the clinic after they have been accepted.

DAV Poppy Days Friday, Saturday

Disabled American Veterans' Poppy Days will be held here Friday and Saturday.

Proceeds from the sales of the poppies will be used to purchase supplies and furnish entertainment for patients in Ward 211-C at the Chillicothe Veterans Hospital.

American Legion Auxiliary members will sell the poppies on local downtown streets.

Fred Mavis Named Sergeant at Arms

Fred Mavis was elected sergeant-at-arms during the fourth meeting of the Walnut Wonder Workers held recently in the home of Shirley Dumm.

Projects books were passed out to the 28 members attending. Discussion of Mavis's duties headlined the meeting's business session.

Refreshments were served by Douglas Dunkle, Gary Thomas and Miss Dumm. The next meeting will be held today in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Hurley, Route 1, Ashville.
